

ADAM SCOTT INTERMEDIATE NEWSLETTER

APRIL 2020

Spring Time Greetings

We hope this newsletter finds you all safe and healthy and happy at home! Thank you to all of you for your efforts to adapt to the present distance learning situation. By now, most students have connected to their learning and are doing a great job engaging with the tasks and activities that our staff have been hard at work preparing. We have also deployed technology devices to students who needed them to learn at home. If for some reason you did not have a chance to contact our staff to express a need for technology, please contact the Vice Principal, Jennifer Murphy at jennifer_murphy@kprdsb.ca to make arrangements to pick up a device.

Please also let us know how we can support you and your child with learning at home and we will be happy to ensure that one of our awesome Educational Assistants reaches out to coach and engage your child from a distance.

If you or a family you know is in need of support with food, please do not hesitate to contact any of our staff or email the Vice Principal, Jennifer Murphy to let her know that support is needed. We are judgement-free and simply want to help ensure our Adam Scott students and their families are taken care of!

Best wishes to all of you to be healthy and safe and to find little joys in new ways as we all navigate this together!

Try to choose Joy

It is easy to say, I know, but we are all encouraged to stay positive, look for joy in the small things and be grateful we have a community that can support each other. Please don't hesitate to reach out to any of our staff you feel comfortable with if your child is in need of help. We are here and we care.

Fairhaven Retirement Home Residents Need Our Help

Please consider writing a letter to the residents of our local community member at Fairhaven Retirement Home which is located right beside our school! It is simple! Just write a letter and email it or share it with the Vice Principal, Jennifer Murphy on google docs or Edsby or jennifer_murphy@kprdsb.ca and Ms. Murphy will make sure the letters are dropped off through a safe process to Fairhaven. Thank you for being a part of our Adam Scott Cares community!
